Leadership Studies Courses (LS)

This is a list of all leadership studies courses. For more information, see Leadership Studies.

LS:1005 Leadership Community Seminar 0-1 s.h.
Opportunity to develop leadership knowledge and skills through workshops and programs; meaningful involvement and engagement on campus and in community through service learning opportunities; team building through a variety of initiatives and student-led programming; interaction with students who are making their own personal impact.
Requirements: member of Personal Impact Living Learning Community.

LS:1009 Mock Trial 2 s.h.
Opportunity to learn legal analysis and argumentation, public performance; participation in University of Iowa Mock Trial Club; mock trial role preparation, tournament competition, and staging an annual club tournament.

LS:1010 Theme Semester Student Ambassador Seminar I 0-1 s.h.
Preparation to effectively communicate information about the Theme Semester program to faculty, staff, students, and community members; support program events and activities by increasing student involvement.

LS:1011 Theme Semester Student Ambassador Seminar II 0-1 s.h.
Builds off of LS:1010; continued preparation to effectively communicate information about the Theme Semester program to faculty, staff, students, and community members; support program events and activities by increasing student involvement.

LS:1017 Orientation Leader Training 0-2 s.h.
Preparation for leadership role as a Hawkeye Guide in the Office of Orientation Services or as an On Iowa! team captain.

LS:1018 Issues in College Residence Halls I 0-1 s.h.
Development of knowledge and skills required for work as a resident assistant; creating community, handling crises and emergencies; leadership.

LS:1020 Introduction to Leadership 3 s.h.
Overview of leadership theory and skills for effective leadership; historical perspective, development of a personal philosophy of leadership, self-assessments, leadership models; study of groups, culture, and communities; application of experiential learning settings; community service project; geared toward emerging student leaders.

LS:1021 Current Issues and Leadership in Fraternity and Sorority Life 3 s.h.
Current issues facing leaders (alcohol and hazing education, conflict management, lasting impact of organizations on members); lifetime membership and values-based decision making; for leaders of fraternity and sorority community.

LS:1022 President’s Leadership Class (PLC) 3 s.h.
Meetings on current UI issues and the UI Presidents’ philosophy on leadership; leaders from inside and outside the University, including Board of Regents, political leaders, influential alumni, student leaders, professors, coaches, other administrators; activities linked to the development of personal leadership style. Requirements: first-year standing and application.

LS:1024 Alternative Break Service Learning arr.
Introduction to theoretical approaches to service learning; shared experiential learning event off campus (i.e., alternative break) coordinated by professional or graduate staff member; variety of concepts including building intersectionality of varied social and community issues, reflection and reciprocity, active citizenship and community building, practical implementation of skills from student's academic disciplines, leadership development, and other related areas; five expectations of the IOWA Challenge, with emphasis on STRETCH and SERVE, through education, direct service, and reflection. Requirements: application and acceptance to program.

LS:1025 Leadership for Social Justice 3 s.h.
Social justice as a process and a goal; students build a brave community that empowers all members when faced with social justice related dilemmas; skills that bring about positive social change on campus, within local communities, and on global scale; for students who are committed to study and practice of social justice in their personal and professional lives and student organization leaders directly advised or supported by UI cultural and resource centers—African American Cultural Center (AACC), Asian Pacific American Cultural Center (APACC), Latino Native American Cultural Center (LNACC), and Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer Resource Center (LGBTQRC).

LS:2002 Career Leadership Academy Part 1: Leadership in Practice 3 s.h.
How to become a successful leader; opportunity to increase understanding of self, others, and the skills sought by employers; work and lead effectively in teams; creation of a group presentation focused on community needs; career components of résumé writing, LinkedIn profile development, and networking; first in a two-course series.

LS:2013 Strengths-Based Leadership 1 s.h.
Examination and evaluation of personal unique talents, be more engaged, and gain better understanding of leadership from a "Strengths" perspective; how to maximize strengths to stand out from the crowd; how society encourages people to be well-rounded (according to Gallup Organization's Strengths research) and how this pursuit of many goals can actually result in mediocrity.

LS:2024 Hawkeye Service Team: Alternative Break Leadership 0.2 s.h.
Focus on techniques for planning trip logistics, education on social issues, and facilitation of critical reflection; development in theoretical approaches to service learning specifically connected to service immersion leadership; varied concepts including building intersectionality of varied social and community issues, reflection and reciprocity, active citizenship and community building, practical implementation of skills from student's academic disciplines, leadership development, and other related areas. Requirements: LS:1024, and application and acceptance to leadership position.

LS:3002 Career Leadership Academy Part 2: Leadership in Action 3 s.h.
Leadership development and career readiness; application of strengths, building effective teams, motivation, and delegation skills to a service-learning project designed by the class through engagement with a community partner; explore interviewing, personal branding, job searching, professional etiquette, salary negotiation, and transitioning successfully into the workplace; second in a two-course series. Prerequisites: LS:2002.
LS:3003 Culturally Intelligent Leadership  1 s.h.
Knowledge and skills for leadership in an increasingly diverse and global workplace; highly interactive and relational experience; students gain a greater understanding of their leadership in various environments and learn how to develop tools for establishing and maintaining interpersonal relationships for professional success.

LS:3004 Perspectives on Leadership: Principles and Practices  3 s.h.
Broad foundation of leadership knowledge representing diverse approaches to studying and practicing leadership; core course for students pursuing the leadership certificate. Requirements: sophomore or higher standing.

LS:3009 Global Leadership Initiative in Xicotepec  0-2 s.h.
Culture, history, and values of Mexico; leadership skills and work on civil and humanitarian projects; reflection of learning and experiences; spring break week in Xicotepec, Mexico. Requirements: participation in Career Leadership Academy and concurrent enrollment in ABRD:3352.

LS:3010 Global Leadership Initiative  1 s.h.
Development of knowledge, attitudes, and skills to be effective global leaders regardless of the industry or field; working effectively in a global environment; ability to deal with ambiguity and unfamiliarity; critical thinking and comparative skills, including the ability to think creatively and integrate knowledge; pre-experience assessment, guided reflection, intercultural communication; online course for students engaged in a study abroad experience or international internship. Requirements: concurrent enrollment in a study abroad or international internship experience, completing an international component of current employment, or plans to participate in one of the previous experiences within a year.

LS:3011 Leadership Certificate Capstone  0,2 s.h.
Registration of practical work experience (internship or career position) with leadership components, or meaningful and educational cocurricular experience in on-campus leadership position (i.e., student organization leader, student government leader, residence assistant, student orientation advisor, peer educator, fraternity/sorority leader) with active leadership roles and responsibilities (i.e., executive leadership position, initiating and organizing a major event); application of leadership models and theories to practical experiences; for students completing the leadership certificate. Prerequisites: LS:3004 and LS:3012. Requirements: an additional 6 s.h. of approved leadership course work and meet with instructor prior to enrollment.

LS:3012 Leadership Theory to Practice  3 s.h.
How the world is changing at an accelerating rate; leadership effectiveness and demand of a high-level ability to work with others and respond to change; foundational concepts of major theories and behaviors of leadership models; practical challenges of leadership analyzed through use of experiential projects, discussion, presentations, exercises; development of self-awareness through use of behavioral instruments, group exercises, individual reflection; major approaches to leadership, authentic leadership, team leadership, gender issues in leadership, emotional intelligence, virtual leadership.