Orthoptics Teaching Program Courses (OTP)

This is a list of all Orthoptics Teaching Program courses. For more information, see Carver College of Medicine.

OTP:4902 Orthoptics Program

0 s.h.

Clinical science of binocular vision, ocular motility, and related eye disorders; practical, theoretical training in the Department of Ophthalmology and Visual Sciences two-year program; written, oral and practical national board examinations required at completion. Requirements: bachelor’s degree with specific class recommendations.