

Multilingualism and Culturally Responsive Practice in SLP, Graduate Certificate

The graduate Certificate in Multilingualism and Culturally Responsive Practice in Speech-Language Pathology (SLP) is new effective fall 2023. More information related to this certificate's requirements will be provided in a future catalog.

This certificate is open to graduate students currently enrolled and in good standing in the Master of Arts in speech pathology and audiology.