

Master of Public Health, MPH

Admission

Applicants to the MPH program must apply through the Schools of Public Health Application Service (SOPHAS) and then set up a University of Iowa account and pay the UI supplemental fee. For detailed application information, visit Prospective Graduate Students on the Master of Public Health website.

Applicants to the MPH program must have successfully completed one semester each of college algebra and biology.

Applicants whose first language is not English must submit official test scores to verify English proficiency. Applicants can verify English proficiency by submitting official test scores from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), the International English Language Testing System (IELTS), or another assessment approved by the Graduate College.

Applicants must meet the admission requirements of the Graduate College; see the Manual of Rules and Regulations on the Graduate College website.

Students may enter the MPH program in fall and summer. Application deadline for fall or summer entrance to the MPH program is April 15.

Application deadline for the MPH for practicing veterinarians is March 1.

Application deadline for the Undergraduate to Graduate (U2G) program is Feb. 1.

Students may enter the MPH combined programs in fall, spring, and summer. Contact the individual combined programs for deadline information.
