Iowa Degree in Three

University of Iowa majors who are strongly motivated can graduate with a degree in three years under the newly-implemented Iowa Degree in Three. The program is available to students who can complete more semester hours each term than they would on the Four-Year Graduation Plan.

Students sign an agreement during their first semester of enrollment; meet with an advisor at least once a semester to review their plans and progress; take courses during summer sessions, if necessary; meet specific course checkpoints; and maintain the grade-point average required for the major.

Students are allowed to bring Advanced Placement (AP), College Level Examination Program (CLEP), or transfer credit upon admission to reduce the number of semester hours required for their degree. They should consult their advisor about the program.

Five majors in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and one major in the Tippie College of Business are currently part of the Iowa Degree in Three program.
