Student Information Technology Skills

Director

- Mary Grabe (Information Technology Services)

Student Information Technology Skills offers a course for students who are interested in on-campus employment providing IT support or creating and maintaining web sites. Students are graded on participation in online and class discussions and projects. They must obtain the instructor's consent before registering for this course.

Courses

Upper-Level Undergraduate and Graduate

SITS:3102 Core IT Support Skills 2 s.h.
Knowledge and hands-on skills necessary for supporting computers in an institutional setting; basic hardware, operating systems, application, and networking support topics.