The Tippie College of Business and the John Pappajohn Entrepreneurial Center (Iowa JPEC) offer the Certificate in Entrepreneurial Management. They also work with other units on campus to offer entrepreneurship programs. The college collaborates with the College of Engineering to offer the Certificate in Technological Entrepreneurship. The center partners with the Department of Management and Organizations to offer the entrepreneurial management track for Bachelor of Business Administration students majoring in management. It collaborates with the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences to offer the B.A. in Enterprise Leadership, the Certificate in Arts Entrepreneurship, and the Certificate in Media Entrepreneurialism.

The John Pappajohn Entrepreneurial Center also offers a wide variety of professional experiences designed to foster the development of entrepreneurs and future organizational leaders.

Undergraduate entrepreneurship programs at the University of Iowa combine academic course work and experiential learning with a focus on teaching entrepreneurial leadership, innovation and creativity, opportunity recognition and assessment, and strategic business planning. Several of the programs are open to all University of Iowa undergraduates. To learn more, visit the John Pappajohn Entrepreneurial Center website.

Facilities

Entrepreneurial Management Institute

The Entrepreneurial Management Institute works with top entrepreneurship students in the B.B.A. in management (entrepreneurial management track), B.A. in enterprise leadership, and certificate programs in entrepreneurial management, technological entrepreneurship, and arts entrepreneurship. Experienced business professionals and entrepreneurial leaders work with students to complete advanced strategic business planning projects for entrepreneurial firms. Students network with successful Iowa CEOs and business leaders, and have opportunities to enhance their professional project management, presentation, and business communication skills. Students also receive support for obtaining internships, career planning, and job placement.

Bedell Entrepreneurship Learning Laboratory

The Bedell Entrepreneurship Learning Laboratory is an applied learning environment for advanced entrepreneurship students creating a new business. The laboratory provides dedicated office space for individual students and teams, enabling them to concentrate on developing their business concepts. University of Iowa student entrepreneurs participate in the Founders Club, a student business acceleration program open to any student at the university. This business incubator connects students with the resources to launch startups, and to grow them into sustainable businesses. Participants have access to a variety of resources including collaborative work space and equipment, workshops, training, networking, funding opportunities and one-on-one mentoring from experienced professionals. Students also compete for capital in several campus and national pitch and business model competitions, obtain access to technical support services, and get connected to potential investors and business partners.

Contact the John Pappajohn Entrepreneurial Center for information about Founders Club or visit the Founders Club web page to apply.
