Students who are members of University of Iowa intercollegiate athletics teams and are certified to participate in their sport may register for IAP:1021 Intercollegiate Athletic Participation. Qualified students may receive up to 2 s.h. of credit for IAP:1021. First year student-athletes may enroll in IAP:1021 and receive credit for completion of the section with the subtitle—athletic transition seminar. Student-athletes who have previously received credit for the athletic transition seminar section may enroll in IAP:1021 and receive 1 s.h. credit for their sport participation. Student-athletes who did not earn credit for the athletic transition seminar section may enroll in IAP:1021 for 1 s.h. of credit.

Registration requires approval from the director of Student-Athlete Academic Services. Members of University of Iowa sport clubs are not eligible to enroll in IAP:1021.
