Family Medicine

Chair

- Jeffrey D. Quinlan

Faculty: https://medicine.uiowa.edu/familymedicine/people/people
Website: https://medicine.uiowa.edu/familymedicine/

M.D. Training

The Department of Family Medicine trains primary care physicians. The department offers coursework that is included throughout the four-year M.D. program. Advanced elective rotations give students opportunities for exposure to various Iowa communities through work in affiliated hospitals or connected facilities including clerkships with selected family physicians throughout the state and within the University of Iowa Hospital & Clinics family medicine department and clinics. Students also have the opportunity for independent study during their fourth year.