

Master of Physician Associate Studies, MPA

Career Advancement

Upon successful completion of the MPA program, graduates work in a variety of settings, including all areas in a traditional hospital setting, medical offices, nursing homes, rural satellite clinics, health maintenance organizations, and patients' homes.

In addition, graduates can enter into physician associate residency or fellowship programs at various academic medical centers across the country.

The MPA program boasts a 100% job placement rate within six months of graduation.