

Oral Science, MS

Admission

Applicants to the MS program must meet the admission requirements of the Graduate College and those specified by the clinical department.

A personal interview may be requested. Programs normally begin July 1 each year.