Oral Science, MS

Admission

Applicants to the MS program must meet the admission requirements of the Graduate College and those specified by the clinical department, including the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), the International English Language Testing System (IELTS), or the Duolingo English Test (DET) scores for applicants whose first language is not English.

A personal interview may be requested. Programs normally begin July 1 each year.