Academic Career
Any Semester
Admission to the Teacher Education Program, College of Education, is by competitive application. For information about application requirements, process, and deadlines, please see the College of Education's website.

Students must maintain a GPA of at least 2.70 in professional education course requirements.

Students must earn another major at the University of Iowa in order to earn the BA in world language education. Both degrees may be earned at the same time.

Prerequisites for admission into the Teacher Education Program for world language education include 12 s.h. of coursework in the language of the second degree.

Graduates who have earned one of these degrees at another institution and wish to earn the BA in world language education should consult the Department of Teaching and Learning; additional coursework may be required.

a These majors include a BA in Asian languages and literature with a Chinese or Japanese subprogram, a BA in French, a BA in German, a BA in Italian, a BA in Russian, a BA in Spanish, or a BA in classical languages with a Latin language emphasis.
b Students who have completed four years of a single language in high school have satisfied the GE CLAS Core World Languages requirement. Enrollment in world languages courses requires a placement exam, unless enrolling in a first-semester-level course.
c GE CLAS Core courses may be completed in any order unless used as a prerequisite for another course. Students should consult with an advisor about the best sequencing of courses.
d Complete the College of Education verification of 10 hour field experience form available on the Office of Student Services web page.
e Choose a course that will satisfy the Teacher Education Program math requirement.
f Please see the College of Education website for detailed application instructions and deadlines. Admission is selective and a priority deadline exists.
g Typically this course is offered in spring semesters only. Check MyUI for course availability since offerings are subject to change.
h Typically this course is offered in fall semesters only. Check MyUI for course availability since offerings are subject to change.
i Please see Academic Calendar, Office of the Registrar website for current degree application deadlines. Students should apply for a degree for the session in which all requirements will be met. For any questions on appropriate timing, contact your academic advisor or Graduation Services.
j As a requirement for completion of an approved Teacher Education Program for initial teaching licensure, the state of Iowa requires a passing score on this exam. The assessment is required before recommendation for licensure or certification to any state.
