Engineering and Information Technology, MS

Requirements

The Master of Science program in engineering and information technology requires 30 s.h. of graduate credit. Students must maintain a cumulative grade-point average of at least 3.00. Students are allowed up to 6 s.h. of approved transfer credit.