- a Students majoring in art begin their study in the Bachelor of Arts program. They may apply to the Bachelor of Fine Arts program after consulting with the faculty in the studio discipline of their choice about the required portfolio review. Students are admitted to the BFA program through a process called "clearance," which is conducted once each semester; they must be admitted to the BFA program at least one semester before they graduate.
- b Sustainability must be completed by choosing a course that has been approved for Sustainability AND for one of these General Education areas: Natural Sciences; Quantitative and Formal Reasoning; Social Sciences; Historical Perspectives; International and Global Issues; Literary, Visual, and Performing Arts; or Values and Society.
- c Studio art majors are required to complete ARTS:1510 and ARTS:1520 by the end of their first academic year.
- d Students may fulfill this general education requirement while also fulfilling major requirements. Up to three major courses can be used to fulfill one GE CLAS Core area each. These areas could include: diversity and inclusion; historical perspectives; international and global issues; literary, visual, and performing arts; or values and culture. Not all courses are available every semester. Students should consult with their advisor.
- e GE CLAS Core courses may be completed in any order unless used as a prerequisite for another course. Students should consult with an advisor about the best sequencing of courses.
- f For the two introductory-level studio 3D courses, students in the ceramics discipline complete CERM:2010. Select a second course from INTM:2710, MTLs:2910, SCLP:2810, or TDSN:2210.
- g Select art history survey course from ARTH:1040, ARTH:1050, ARTH:1060, ARTH:1070, and ARTH:1095. Some introductory-level art history courses will fulfill GE CLAS Core requirements; students should consult with their advisor.
- h Select introductory-level studio 2D course from DRAW:2310, DSGN:2500, PHTO:2600, PNTG:2410, or PRNT:2610.
- i Students who have completed four levels of a single language or two levels of two different languages in high school or college have satisfied the GE CLAS Core World Languages requirement. Students who have completed three levels of a single language may complete a fourth-level course in the same language or may choose an approved World Language and Cultural Exploration course. Enrollment in world languages courses requires a placement exam, unless enrolling in a first-semester-level course. Contact your academic advisor or CLAS Undergraduate Programs Office with questions concerning the World Languages requirement.
- j Students may use elective courses to earn credit towards the total s.h. required for graduation or to complete a double major, minors, or certificates.
- k Does not include ARTH:1000, ARTH:1040, ARTH:1050, ARTH:1060, ARTH:1070, ARTH:1080, ARTH:1095, ARTH:3985, ARTH:3995, and ARTH:4999.
- l Students may select an elective art course until they complete a maximum of 62 s.h. of art courses, or select a non-art elective course.
- m Please see Academic Calendar, Office of the Registrar website for current degree application deadlines. Students should apply for a degree for the session in which all requirements will be met. For any questions on appropriate timing, contact your academic advisor or Degree Services.

- a Students majoring in art begin their study in the Bachelor of Arts program. They may apply to the Bachelor of Fine Arts program after consulting with the faculty in the studio discipline of their choice about the required portfolio review. Students are admitted to the BFA program through a process called "clearance," which is conducted once each semester; they must be admitted to the BFA program at least one semester before they graduate.
- b Sustainability must be completed by choosing a course that has been approved for Sustainability AND for one of these General Education areas: Natural Sciences; Quantitative and Formal Reasoning; Social Sciences; Historical Perspectives; International and Global Issues; Literary, Visual, and Performing Arts; or Values and Society.
- c Studio art majors are required to complete ARTS:1510 and ARTS:1520 by the end of their first academic year.
- d Students may fulfill this general education requirement while also fulfilling major requirements. Up to three major courses can be used to fulfill one GE CLAS Core area each. These areas could include: diversity and inclusion; historical perspectives; international and global issues; literary, visual, and performing arts; or values and culture. Not all courses are available every semester. Students should consult with their advisor.
- e GE CLAS Core courses may be completed in any order unless used as a prerequisite for another course. Students should consult with an advisor about the best sequencing of courses.
- f For the two introductory-level studio 3D courses, students in the jewelry and metal arts discipline complete MTLs:2910. Select a second course from CERM:2010, INTM:2710, SCLP:2810, or TDSN:2210.
- h Select introductory-level studio 2D course from DRAW:2310, DSGN:2500, PHTO:2600, PNTG:2410, or PRNT:2610.
- i Students who have completed four levels of a single language or two levels of two different languages in high school or college have satisfied the GE CLAS Core World Languages requirement. Students who have completed three levels of a single language may complete a fourth-level course in the same language or may choose an approved World Language and Cultural Exploration course. Enrollment in world languages courses requires a placement exam, unless enrolling in a first-semester-level course. Contact your academic advisor or CLAS Undergraduate Programs Office with questions concerning the World Languages requirement.
- j Students may use elective courses to earn credit towards the total s.h. required for graduation or to complete a double major, minors, or certificates.
- k Does not include ARTH:1000, ARTH:1040, ARTH:1050, ARTH:1060, ARTH:1070, ARTH:1080, ARTH:1095, ARTH:3985, ARTH:3995, and ARTH:4999.
- l Students may select an elective art course until they complete a maximum of 62 s.h. of art courses, or select a non-art elective course.

Please see Academic Calendar, Office of the Registrar website for current degree application deadlines. Students should apply for a degree for the session in which all requirements will be met. For any questions on appropriate timing, contact your academic advisor or Degree Services.

- a Students majoring in art begin their study in the Bachelor of Arts program. They may apply to the Bachelor of Fine Arts program after consulting with the faculty in the studio discipline of their choice about the required portfolio review. Students are admitted to the BFA program through a process called "clearance," which is conducted once each semester; they must be admitted to the BFA program at least one semester before they graduate.
- b Sustainability must be completed by choosing a course that has been approved for Sustainability AND for one of these General Education areas: Natural Sciences; Quantitative and Formal Reasoning; Social Sciences; Historical Perspectives; International and Global Issues; Literary, Visual, and Performing Arts; or Values and Society.
- c Studio art majors are required to complete ARTS:1510 and ARTS:1520 by the end of their first academic year.
- d Students may fulfill this general education requirement while also fulfilling major requirements. Up to three major courses can be used to fulfill one GE CLAS Core area each. These areas could include: diversity and inclusion; historical perspectives; international and global issues; literary, visual, and performing arts; or values and culture. Not all courses are available every semester. Students should consult with their advisor.
- e GE CLAS Core courses may be completed in any order unless used as a prerequisite for another course. Students should consult with an advisor about the best sequencing of courses.
- f For the two introductory-level studio 3D courses, students in the sculpture discipline complete SCLP:2810. Select a second course from CERM:2010, INTM:2710, MTLs:2910, or TDSN:2210.
- h Select introductory-level studio 2D course from DRAW:2310, DSGN:2500, PHTO:2600, PNTG:2410, or PRNT:2610.
- i Students who have completed four levels of a single language or two levels of two different languages in high school or college have satisfied the GE CLAS Core World Languages requirement. Students who have completed three levels of a single language may complete a fourth-level course in the same language or may choose an approved World Language and Cultural Exploration course. Enrollment in world languages courses requires a placement exam, unless enrolling in a first-semester-level course. Contact your academic advisor or CLAS Undergraduate Programs Office with questions concerning the World Languages requirement.
- j Students may use elective courses to earn credit towards the total s.h. required for graduation or to complete a double major, minors, or certificates.

- l Students may select an elective art course until they complete a maximum of 62 s.h. of art courses, or select a non-art elective course.
- m Please see Academic Calendar, Office of the Registrar website for current degree application deadlines. Students should apply for a degree for the session in which all requirements will be met. For any questions on appropriate timing, contact your academic advisor or Degree Services.
