

Art History, BA

Career Advancement

Many graduates go on to careers in academics, museums, or private art galleries. Those who wish to work as professors, museum curators, or museum directors typically pursue graduate study in art history. Some graduates instead pursue advanced study in fields such as architecture, information science, museum studies, and law. Others may begin careers immediately, working in galleries and museums as arts administrators and catalogers, writing art criticism, or applying their skills in writing and visual analysis to disciplines beyond the arts.

The Pomerantz Career Center offers multiple resources to help students find internships and jobs.
