Academic Plans

Four-Year Graduation Plan

The following checkpoints list the minimum requirements students must complete by certain semesters in order to stay on the university's Four-Year Graduation Plan. Courses in the major are those required to complete the major; they may be offered by departments other than the major department.

Classical Languages—Greek and Latin

Before the third semester begins: CLSG:1001 Classical and New Testament Greek I or CLSL:1001 Elementary Latin I.

Before the fifth semester begins: CLSG:1002 Classical and New Testament Greek II and CLSL:1002 Elementary Latin II.

Before the seventh semester begins: CLSG:2001 Second-Year Greek I, and CLSL:2001 World of Cicero or CLSL:2002 Golden Age of Roman Poetry or CLSG:2002 Second-Year Greek II, and at least 90 s.h. earned toward the degree.

Before the eighth semester begins: 6 s.h. of courses numbered 3000 and above with the prefix CLSG or CLSL.

During the eighth semester: enrollment in all remaining coursework in the major, all remaining GE CLAS Core courses, and a sufficient number of semester hours to graduate.

Classical Languages—Greek Only

Before the third semester begins: CLSG:1001 Classical and New Testament Greek I and CLSG:1002 Classical and New Testament Greek II.

Before the fifth semester begins: CLSG:2001 Second-Year Greek I and CLSG:2002 Second-Year Greek II.

Before the seventh semester begins: two courses numbered 3000 and above with prefix CLSG and at least one additional course with the prefix CLSA at any level.

Before the eighth semester begins: either one advanced course numbered 3000 and above with prefix CLSG or one additional course with the prefix CLSA; and at least 90 s.h. earned toward the degree.

Classical Languages—Latin Only

Before the third semester begins: CLSL:1001 Elementary Latin I and CLSL:1002 Elementary Latin II.

Before the fifth semester begins: CLSL:2001 World of Cicero and CLSL:2002 Golden Age of Roman Poetry.

Before the seventh semester begins: two courses numbered 3000 and above with prefix CLSL and at least one additional course with the prefix CLSA at any level; and at least 90 s.h. earned toward the degree.

Before the eighth semester begins: either one course numbered 3000 and above with prefix CLSG or one additional course with the prefix CLSA.

Sample Plan of Study

Sample plans represent one way to complete a program of study. Actual course selection and sequence will vary and should be discussed with an academic advisor. For additional sample plans, see MyUI.

a Sustainability must be completed by choosing a course that has been approved for Sustainability AND for one of these General Education areas: Natural Sciences; Quantitative or Formal Reasoning; Social Sciences; Historical Perspectives; International and Global Issues; Literary, Visual, and Performing Arts; or Values and Society.

b A student may also begin with Greek the first year and Latin in the second year.

c GE CLAS Core courses may be completed in any order unless used as a prerequisite for another course. Students should consult with an advisor about the best sequencing of courses.

d Students may use elective courses to earn credit towards the total s.h. required for graduation or to complete a double major, minors, or certificates.

e Students are required to complete 15 s.h. in intermediate or advanced Greek and/or Latin courses (prefix CLSG or CLSL, numbered 2001-4999).

f Please see Academic Calendar, on Office of the Registrar website, for current degree application deadlines. Students should apply for a degree for the session in which all requirements will be met. For any questions on appropriate timing, contact your academic advisor or Degree Services.
