The master’s degree program in Greek is intended for students who wish to teach Greek language, literature, and history at the high school level. It also is intended for those who wish to transfer to another institution for PhD work.

Learning Outcomes

Students are expected to demonstrate:

- understanding of advanced Greek vocabulary and grammar;
- broad knowledge of ancient Greek literature;
- comprehension of ancient Greek history, material culture, and cultural cohesion, differentiation, and development over time; and
- application of a knowledge of Greek language and culture to modern educational and civic issues.

Requirements

The Master of Arts program in Greek requires a minimum of 30 s.h. in courses numbered 3000 or above. Students may count a maximum of 12 s.h. earned in courses numbered 3000–4999 toward the degree. Students must maintain a cumulative grade-point average of at least 3.00 to earn the degree.

Students must pass a sight examination in Greek and an examination on Greek literature and history.

Courses taken to complete the Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Classics do not count toward the degree.

Admission

Applicants must meet the admission requirements of the Graduate College; see the Manual of Rules and Regulations on the Graduate College website.

Academic Plans

Sample plans represent one way to complete a program of study. Actual course selection and sequence will vary and should be discussed with an academic advisor. For additional sample plans, see MyUI.
