Latin, Minor

A minor in Latin is an excellent way to pursue the study of Latin beyond the General Education World Languages courses and to explore an interest in reading famous authors and philosophers (Ovid, Cicero, and others) in their native language.

Learning Outcomes

Students are expected to demonstrate:

- the ability to read Latin at an intermediate to advanced level;
- knowledge of major literary works and written sources from the Roman world; and
- understanding of the impact that the political, intellectual, and social environments of the people from ancient Rome have on modern cultures.

Requirements

The undergraduate minor in Latin requires a minimum of 15 s.h. in Latin courses (prefix CLSL), including at least 12 s.h. in advanced courses numbered 2000 and above taken at the University of Iowa. Students must maintain a grade-point average of at least 2.00 in all courses for the minor and in all UI courses for the minor. Coursework in the minor may not be taken pass/nonpass.

A maximum of 6 s.h. of work for another University of Iowa major, minor, or certificate and up to 3 s.h. of lower-level transfer credit may be counted toward the minor.

Students who earn the minor in Latin may not earn the BA in classical languages; students who are interested in a minor in Greek at the same time as this minor should consider the minor in classical languages instead. Students who earn a minor in Latin may not earn a minor in classical languages.

The sequence CLSL:2001 World of Cicero and CLSL:2002 Golden Age of Roman Poetry, and Department of Classics courses numbered 3000 or above are considered advanced for the minor. Students may substitute a maximum of 3 s.h. for the Latin requirement with one of the relevant advanced-level courses taught in English from the following.
