

Communication Studies, PhD

Admission

Admission decisions are based on undergraduate achievement for a BA applicant and graduate achievement for an MA applicant, letters of reference, the statement of purpose, and samples of scholarly work.

Applicants to graduate programs in communication studies must meet the admission requirements of the Graduate College; see the Manual of Rules and Regulations on the Graduate College website. For information about applying to the doctoral program in communication studies, visit Prospective Graduate Students on the Department of Communication Studies website.

Admission is for fall semester entry. Applicants whose materials are received by the application deadline of Jan. 1 will be considered for admission and financial support.
