

French and Francophone World Studies, MA

Financial Support

Teaching assistantships are offered through the department, and university fellowships and scholarships are available through the Graduate College. Contact the Department of French and Italian for details.

Exchange assistantship agreements with the University of Pau and the University of Poitiers provide one year of residence at these universities in France for graduate students.