Exercise Science, B.S.

Learning Outcomes
Students will be able to:

• undertake focused study in physical fitness, physical activity, sport nutrition, and sport conditioning as they pertain to health and performance outcomes;
• use and understand scientific methods to approach and solve problems in exercise science;
• effectively communicate physical wellness issues to key stakeholders; and
• encourage life-long learning in the rapidly evolving fields of exercise science.