

Journalism and Mass Communication, BA

Academic Plans

Four-Year Graduation Plan

The following checkpoints list the minimum requirements students must complete by certain semesters in order to stay on the university's Four-Year Graduation Plan.

Students must declare the journalism and mass communication major by the first semester of their sophomore year in order to be eligible for the Four-Year Graduation Plan. The following checkpoints include the required work in journalism and mass communication plus a second area of study, but they do not include the requirements of a second major, since the Four-Year Graduation Plan does not apply to second majors.

Before the fifth semester begins: JMC:1100 Introduction to Media Effects or JMC:1200 Introduction to Media and Culture or JMC:1500 Introduction to Social Media, JMC:1300 Introduction to Journalism and Strategic Communication, JMC:1600 Writing Fundamentals, a second area of study chosen, and at least one-quarter of the semester hours required for graduation.

Before the sixth semester begins: JMC:2600 Freedom of Expression, JMC:2020 Multimedia Storytelling, and JMC:2010 Reporting and Writing or JMC:2030 Visual Communication and Design.

Before the seventh semester begins: JMC:2010 Reporting and Writing or JMC:2030 Visual Communication and Design (if not already taken), JMC:2700 Media Ethics and Diversity, one managing/planning course or one understanding media course, one writing/storytelling or one designing/producing course, and at least one-half of the semester hours required for graduation.

During the seventh semester: two additional writing/storytelling or designing/producing courses, one understanding media course or one managing/planning course, and at least three-quarters of the semester hours required for graduation.

During the eighth semester: one writing/storytelling or designing/producing course, one advanced or capstone course, all remaining GE CLAS Core courses, and a sufficient number of semester hours to graduate.

Sample Plans of Study

Sample plans represent one way to complete a program of study. Actual course selection and sequence will vary and should be discussed with an academic advisor. For additional sample plans, see MyUI.

a Sustainability must be completed by choosing a course that has been approved for Sustainability AND for one of these General Education areas: Natural Sciences; Quantitative and Formal Reasoning; Social Sciences; Historical Perspectives; International and Global Issues; Literary, Visual, and Performing Arts; or Values and Society.

b Students must complete these courses with a C-minus or higher before taking JMC:2010, JMC:2020, and JMC:2030.

c Fulfills a major requirement and may fulfill a GE requirement.

d Students who have completed four levels of a single language or two levels of two different languages in high school or college have satisfied the GE CLAS Core World Languages requirement. Students who have completed three levels of a single language may complete a fourth-level course in the same language or may choose an approved World Language and Cultural Exploration course. Enrollment in world languages courses requires a placement exam, unless enrolling in a first-semester-level course. Contact your academic advisor or CLAS Undergraduate e Students may use elective courses to earn credit towards the total s.h. required for graduation or to complete a double major, minors, or certificates.

f GE CLAS Core courses may be completed in any order unless used as a prerequisite for another course. Students should consult with an advisor about the best sequencing of courses.

g Students must complete these courses with a C-minus or higher before taking writing/storytelling courses (JMC:34XX).

h Students must complete these courses with a C-minus or higher before taking designing/producing courses (JMC:36XX).

i Students must complete a second area of study. There are three options: 1) complete a second major; 2) complete an undergraduate certificate; or 3) complete an undergraduate minor (except the Media Management minor). Students may not double count courses for their JMC major and a certificate or minor being used as their second area of study.

j Students who choose a track will pick from 3000 and 4000-level courses designated for their track.

k Depending on which major introduction course is taken, students must still complete two of the following GE requirements: Historical Perspectives, Social Sciences, Values and Society.

l Please see Academic Calendar, Office of the Registrar website for current degree application deadlines. Students should apply for a degree for the session in which all requirements will be met. For any questions on appropriate timing, contact your academic advisor or Degree Services.
