Journalism and Mass Communication, B.A.

Academic Plans

Four-Year Graduation Plan

The following checkpoints list the minimum requirements students must complete by certain semesters in order to stay on the University’s Four-Year Graduation Plan.

Students must declare the journalism and mass communication major by the first semester of their sophomore year in order to be eligible for the Four-Year Graduation Plan. The checkpoints below include the required work in journalism and mass communication plus a second concentration area, but they do not include the requirements of a second major, since the Four-Year Graduation Plan does not apply to second majors.

Before the fifth semester begins: JMC:1100 Media Uses and Effects, JMC:1200 Media History and Culture, JMC:1300 Principles of Strategic Communication or JMC:1400 Principles of Journalism, JMC:1600 Writing Fundamentals, and at least one quarter of the semester hours required for graduation.

Before the seventh semester begins: JMC:2010 Journalistic Reporting and Writing, JMC:2020 Introduction to Multimedia Storytelling, JMC:2600 Freedom of Expression, JMC:2700 Media Ethics and Diversity, one managing/planning course, one writing/storytelling or one designing/producing course, and at least one-half of the semester hours required for graduation.

During the seventh semester: one writing/storytelling or designing/producing course, one understanding media course, and at least three-quarters of the semester hours required for graduation.

During the eighth semester: one writing/storytelling or designing/producing course, one advanced or capstone course, all remaining GE CLAS Core courses, and a sufficient number of semester hours to graduate.

Sample Plan of Study

Sample plans represent one way to complete a program of study. Actual course selection and sequence will vary and should be discussed with an academic advisor. For additional sample plans, see MyUI.

a Students must complete these courses before they enroll in JMC:2010 and JMC:2020.
b Fulfills a major requirement and may fulfill a GE requirement.
c Students who have completed four years of a single language in high school have satisfied the GE CLAS Core World Languages requirement. Enrollment in world languages courses requires a placement exam, unless enrolling in a first-semester-level course.
d GE CLAS Core courses may be completed in any order unless used as a prerequisite for another course. Students should consult with an advisor about the best sequencing of courses.
e Students must complete a second area of study. There are three options: 1. complete a second major, 2. complete a certificate on the School of Journalism and Mass Communication's list of approved certificate programs (the Business Administration Minor is also on this list), or 3. complete a student-designed area of concentration, which must be approved by the SJMC and consist of a minimum of 24 s.h.; at least 15 of the 24 s.h. must be earned in advanced courses (typically numbered above 3000).
f JMC:2010 and JMC:2020 should be taken concurrently. Students must complete JMC:2010 and JMC:2020 before they enroll in a designing/producing or writing/storytelling course.
g Please see Academic Calendar, Office of the Registrar website for current degree application deadlines. Students should apply for a degree for the session in which all requirements will be met. For any questions on appropriate timing, contact your academic advisor or Graduation Services.
