Journalism and Mass Communication, B.A.

Academic Plans

Four-Year Graduation Plan
The following checkpoints list the minimum requirements students must complete by certain semesters in order to stay on the University's Four-Year Graduation Plan.

Students must declare the journalism and mass communication major by the first semester of their sophomore year in order to be eligible for the Four-Year Graduation Plan. The checkpoints below include the required work in journalism and mass communication plus a second concentration area, but they do not include the requirements of a second major, since the Four-Year Graduation Plan does not apply to second majors.

Before the fifth semester begins: JMC:1100 Media Uses and Effects, JMC:1200 Media History and Culture, JMC:1300 Principles of Strategic Communication or JMC:1400 Principles of Journalism, JMC:1600 Writing Fundamentals, and at least one-half of the semester hours required for graduation.

Before the seventh semester begins: JMC:2010 Journalistic Reporting and Writing, JMC:2020 Introduction to Multimedia Storytelling, JMC:2600 Freedom of Expression, JMC:2700 Media Ethics and Diversity, one managing/planning course, one writing/storytelling or one designing/producing course, and at least one-half of the semester hours required for graduation.

During the seventh semester: one writing/storytelling or designing/producing course, one understanding media course, and at least three-quarters of the semester hours required for graduation.

During the eighth semester: one writing/storytelling or designing/producing course, one advanced or capstone course, all remaining GE CLAS Core courses, and a sufficient number of semester hours to graduate.

Sample Plan of Study
Sample plans represent one way to complete a program of study. Actual course selection and sequence will vary and should be discussed with an academic advisor. For additional sample plans, see MyUI.

a. Students must complete these courses before they enroll in JMC:2010 and JMC:2020.

b. Fulfills a major requirement and may fulfill a GE requirement.

c. Students who have completed four years of a single language in high school have satisfied the GE CLAS Core World Languages requirement. Enrollment in world languages courses requires a placement exam, unless enrolling in a first-semester-level course.

d. GE CLAS Core courses may be completed in any order unless used as a prerequisite for another course. Students should consult with an advisor about the best sequencing of courses.

e. Students must complete a second area of study. There are three options: 1. complete a second major, 2. complete a certificate on the School of Journalism and Mass Communication's list of approved certificate programs (the Business Administration Minor is also on this list), or 3. complete a student-designed area of concentration, which must be approved by the SJMC and consist of a minimum of 24 s.h.; at least 15 of the 24 s.h. must be earned in advanced courses (typically numbered above 3000).

f. JMC:2010 and JMC:2020 should be taken concurrently. Students must complete JMC:2010 and JMC:2020 before they enroll in a designing/producing or writing/storytelling course.

g. Please see Academic Calendar, Office of the Registrar website for current degree application deadlines. Students should apply for a degree for the session in which all requirements will be met. For any questions on appropriate timing, contact your academic advisor or Graduation Services.
