Music, BM

Financial Support

A number of music performance-based merit scholarships are available to qualified undergraduate music majors. The audition for admission to the School of Music is also the audition for music scholarships. All music majors with School of Music scholarships must enroll as full-time students, enroll in their instrumental major ensemble and studio lessons each semester, and meet specific grade-point averages. For information, contact the School of Music.