Learning Outcomes

Graduates will be able to:

• demonstrate high quality, evidence-based clinical competence in the advanced practice care of a new patient population focus;
• utilize scientific underpinnings for the advanced practice care of a new patient population focus; and
• incorporate principles of inclusive, compassionate, person-centered care into the delivery of health care.