Health Systems, Graduate Certificate

Learning Outcomes

Graduates will be able to:

- demonstrate organizational and systems leadership to innovate, influence, and transform health care delivery and health equity;
- foster interprofessional partnerships to impact inclusive, person-centered care for sustainable outcomes at the individual, community, or population level; and
- design advanced leadership opportunities to collaborate with health care leaders that impact professional growth for self, the workforce, and health outcomes.