Bachelor of Liberal Studies, BLS

Admission

Individuals who would like to earn the Bachelor of Liberal Studies degree must apply for admission to the program.

Applicants to the BLS program must meet one of the following sets of requirements:

- they must have at least 24 s.h. of graded college-level transfer credit with a grade-point average (GPA) of 2.00 or higher and must have been granted a high school diploma at least three years before being admitted to the BLS program; or
- they must hold an associate degree with a GPA of 2.00 or higher in all college-level transfer credit.