Career Center Programs

Director
• Angi McKie

Website: https://careers.uiowa.edu/

Career Center Programs Courses

CCP:1005 Internship in Liberal Arts and Sciences 0 s.h.
Recognition of practical work experience and internships.

CCP:1006 Internship in Business 0 s.h.
Recognition of practical work experience and internships.

CCP:1007 Internship in Education 0 s.h.
Recognition of practical work experience and internships.
Requirements: admission to Teacher Education Program for undergraduates.

CCP:1010 Internship in Nursing 0 s.h.
Recognition of practical work experience and internships.
Requirements: admission to College of Nursing.

CCP:1015 Internship 0 s.h.
Recognition of practical work experience and internships.

CCP:1017 Winterim Externship 0 s.h.
Recognition of practical work experience for career exploration; externships are shorter in duration and can include job shadowing, small projects, and informational meetings under the mentorship of a supervising professional; experiential education course that provides students with an opportunity to expand on their externship by reflecting on their experience through a self-assessment and evaluation; does not meet the Tippie RISE requirement for business students or CPT/Academic Training requirements for students on an F-1 or J-1 visa.

CCP:1069 Military-to-Civilian Career Exploration arr.
Increase service and veteran members’ awareness of skills for employment and of personal qualities when hired; improve student’s ability to choose career that is right for them through self-discovery and research; focus on role of personal interest, skills, and aptitudes in attaining and succeeding in given career pursuits; use and interpretation of career-related assessment inventories, how this information can lead to job and career satisfaction.

CCP:1091 Internship in Law 0 s.h.
Recognition of practical work experience and internships.

CCP:1170 Internship in Public Health 0 s.h.
Recognition of practical work experience and internships.
Requirements: admission to the College of Public Health.

CCP:1201 Academic Internship 1-3 s.h.
Opportunity for students to expand on internship experiences by developing learning objectives and reflecting on experience; how internship experience relates to academic coursework and future career goals. Prerequisites: a minimum g.p.a. of 2.00. Requirements: secured internship, cumulative g.p.a. of at least 2.00, and completion of 24 s.h. of UI coursework (12 s.h. for transfer students).

CCP:1300 Major and Career Explorations 1 s.h.
Helps students identify their interests, skills, and values relative to majors and careers; self-assessment, informational interviews, research on majors and careers.

CCP:1301 Communication for the Workplace 1 s.h.
How effective verbal and written communication is utilized in the workplace; how email and social media communication is utilized at work; appropriate ways to utilize assertiveness skills; development of refined presentation skills necessary for the workplace; hands-on, skills-based learning environment.
Requirements: sophomore or higher standing.

CCP:1302 Office Etiquette for the Workplace 1 s.h.
How professionalism and work ethic is demonstrated in the workplace; time management and organization skills relevant to full-time employment; succeeding in multigenerational workplaces; hands-on, skills-based learning environment.
Requirements: sophomore or higher standing.

CCP:1303 Successful Teamwork for the Workplace 1 s.h.
Demonstration of problem solving and self-awareness skills relevant to the workplace; application of listening and critical thinking skills; how to perform with a global mindset in the workplace; hands-on, skills-based learning environment.
Requirements: sophomore or higher standing.

CCP:1306 UI STEP: Student to Employed Professional 2 s.h.
Career foundation supplementing classroom learning along with campus job and activities (i.e., job, volunteer work, organizations, etc.); analysis of current University experiences through self-assessment activities; development of a personal action plan for each career development topic; expectations of entry-level employees and graduate school applicants for résumé, interview, and on-the-job performance.
Requirements: student hourly or work-study employment.

CCP:2001 Graduate Admissions 101 1 s.h.
Preparation for graduate school application and admissions process; graduate entrance examinations, how to select a graduate program, graduate school applications and personal statements, securing a graduate assistantship, and graduate school interviews. Recommendations: junior standing or one- to two years before start of graduate school for an intentional and less stressful application process.

CCP:2004 Internships: Search, Secure, and Succeed 1 s.h.
Types of internships; how to find and succeed at an internship; identifying internship priorities; creating résumés; interviewing skills; successful networking; tips for professionalism.

CCP:2020 Washington Center Internship Program arr.

CCP:2021 Washington Center Seminar arr.
Combined classroom instruction, faculty-led discussions, and experiential work opportunities; usually offered in Washington, D.C., occasionally at other locations tied to an event (e.g., political convention); one or two weeks.
CCP:2202 International Student Full-Time Academic Internship 9 s.h.
Academic credit for full time internship (minimum of 40 hours per week) that relates to student's major field.
Requirements: occupies an academic term (fall or spring) and must participate in the internship and the course during the same semester, F-1 or J-1 visa international student, undergraduate standing in the Tippie College of Business, minimum 3.00 g.p.a., must be approved by International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) for F-1 Curricular Practical Training (CPT) or J-1 Academic Training (AT), and concurrent registration in approved singular 3 s.h. distance education course to reach full-time (12 s.h.) student standing.

CCP:3102 Job Search Essentials 1-3 s.h.
Essential skills for finding full-time employment; creating and polishing a résumé, techniques for interviewing and networking, and developing a personal job search plan; for students thinking about graduation and wanting to get serious about a job search. Recommendations: junior or higher standing.

CCP:3103 MoneyWise 1-2 s.h.
Basics of personal finance for success at work and in life; savings, debt, mortgages, loans, employer benefits, insurance and student loans; may include investment basics (e.g., stocks, bonds, mutual funds, 401Ks, IRAs).

CCP:3104 Defining Your Career Path 2 s.h.
Transitioning between career fields; understanding personal interests, values, and abilities; methods of researching information on careers; career development models and student preferences in making career-related decisions; preparation for making career-related decisions through participation in class and individual activities; balancing current responsibilities such as finances and family during a career transition. Requirements: 60 s.h. completed.

CCP:3105 Transitioning from Campus to the Workplace 1 s.h.
Essential skills for transitioning from college life to successful career; tools for professional and personal success—networking, professionalism, workplace communication, managing personal image, and financial planning. Recommendations: junior or higher standing.

CCP:3106 Career Computing Skills 2 s.h.
Students learn to use a variety of software to complete projects that will be relevant in advancing their careers (i.e., improving résumés, creating job search documents, utilizing various tools for meetings, developing professional presentations); email etiquette and efficiency; effective file storage.

CCP:3107 Social Media for Your Job Search 1 s.h.
Effective use of social media for networking as part of preparing for a job search; efficient identification and utilization of online tools (e.g., LinkedIn, Twitter); building a professional online presence; creating a plan for utilizing social networks for an entry-level job search.

CCP:3169 Internship in Graduate Studies 0 s.h.
Recognition of practical work experience and internships. Requirements: admission to Graduate College.

CCP:3203 Investment Wise: Personal Investment Basics 2 s.h.
Basic understanding of general principles of personal investing; topics may include compounding, stocks, bonds, mutual funds, 401K/403B, IRAs, diversification, and asset allocation.